SPINIT LICENSES. . The adjourned meeting of the Licensing Justices was held this forencon. Present Messre May (presiding), Thomsett, R. B. Valker, and Dr. Murray. Mr Overbury, superintendent of the Sailor's Home, appeared, and as a matter. of form his application for renewal was granted The applicant said that, if the Justices wished to sample the spirits kept at the Home, he would be glad to have samples produced. Mr Thomsett said that the Justices had been fully satisfied on that

Joseph L. Smith, whose license was refused at last meeting, made a fresh application, and in a petition he pleaded illness on one occasion and poverty at another an the reason why he gave up his license for the Taku Forts tavern and that for the Yokohama tavern.—Mr May remarked that the applicant's connexion with a person named Burns had been objected to, but that this had been partially explained away. However, the main reason why the license had been refused, had been that Smith had trafficke in licenses; and certain papers were produced to show that he had been compelled to transfer the last license. - As the feeling of the justices was that the license applied for (for the Cardiff Arms) might be allowed because it was the only means the applicant had to support his family, it was granted on condition that there would be no further applications for transfer. The applicant was profuse of E. Parker appeared, and stated that he had made no alteration in his preto mises, and the billiard tables were there in the same way as the Stag Hotel. or the Oriental Hotel. Mr May said that his own house, while the Oriental license always been in the name of Brown only. It was clear that he (Parker) could not sell liquor in Wagner's billiard-room. Parker, however, explained that he was in reality partner with Wagner so far as the billiard-room was concerned, and that he would take out the license for the billiardroom when it expired. The license was therefore granted on condition that Parker! would take over the billiard license so soon as it expired. Parker promised to do so, and said that he was sure Wagner would agree to it. Mrs Henrietta Peel's application was next considered. Considerable conversation took place regarding the applicant's former career as a public-house keeper and as to the fact that she was not strong enough or had the ability of keeping order in an ordinary public-house. Mr May, however, said that a modified license might be granted, if no bar were kept and the liquors were used only by the boarders : she must not keep a publichouse. The presiding magistrate also: inquired as to who were likely to visit the house and who were the ladies living with the applicant. There questions have

after a strong caution. L. C. Volkmann next appeared. Mr May draw the Justice's attention to the case which had lately been heard in the Police Court as to selling liquor without a license. Mr May and Dr Murray both remarked very strongly upon the fact that the Police had given so little assistance in the consideration of those cases. It was their duty to give such information, and Mr Creagh was absent, while Mr Quin did not know much about the particular cases. The cases had been postponed almost entirely that enquiries might be made by the Police. Dr Murray said that they were not prosecutors, but they had often can b to act upon facts laid before them by the Police, and they ought to have got more assistance from the Police in these, matters than they had done. - Yolkmann said that he did to keep a bar, but simply to supply the boarders with liquors.—Dr Murray and that the licenses for such houses should be discouraged, as there was a tendency towards their becoming disreputable. Mr May observed that the Police could keep a sharp look-out upon such houses, and when they became disorderly, the license could, be withdrawn. Mr Thomsett said that the license might be granted for six months; these houses were very apt to degenerate into brothels. - With a caution, however, to the applicant as to the management of the house, Volkmann's license was granted.

Mr Acting Superintendent Creagh here arrived, and stated that he knew nothing more about the cases. He had asked for the papers repeatedly, and could never get them, so that he could not make any inquiries at all .- Mr May said that there could be no difficulty in getting the list of applicants, as it was in the office; but the Justices were now simply in the same position as before .- Mr Creagh observed that the people in the office would not allow the document to go out of the office. Luis Takini, who applied for a license for the Restaurant d'Garibaldi, was granted that favor, on the applicant stating that he was no longer sacristan of the R. C. athedral. He was cautioned about doing any other business. Constantine Valerio next appeared, to renew his application for a license to sell spirits in the house formerly the Yokohama Hotel, now the Rose and Crown, Valerio had various suspicious on him; he was in some way mixed up with the Greek pirates from Shanghai, he tried to stow away !. deserter in his house, and other doubtfuj facts appeared; which out id not be clearly explained away: The Justices therefore unanimously refused the license.

This closed the business. TO-DAY'S POLICE.

Viewed in the light of such representations, and in connection with M P.—This is no new feature in the Chinese Bart's statement of facts. China desires to become a member of the Christian family because she desires to retain her pagan systeni; she is entitled to forbearance and friendly treatment because she is establishing arsenals and building gunboats to resist the execution of treaties; also is advancing in the arts of peace because she is advancing in the art of war; and, therefore, "the true policy is to leave her alone." But Mr

Hart subsequently admits (clause 7) that if we leave her alone she will not feel that want of material strength which is producing these beneficial results, but will relapse into indifference and cease to advance. What, then, is to be done? We must not advise her, because advice creates suspicion we must not force her, because the use of force would be unjust, and would not produce the desired results; we must not press her, because united pressure. which is impracticable owing to diversity of interests. would be essential to success; we must leave her alone that she may advance of her own accord. But if we leave her alone she will not advance. This, Mr Hart considers naturally and healthy progress. I see no other conclusion to these arguments, and must confess that they strike me as more

SIR.—The number of Chinese who have gone to Peru from Canton Province under contract as laborers cannot all numbered from the first, vary far from 30,000 persons. Their associations in that country have recently united in a full representation o their condition and statement of the barsh treatment received from their masters. which they addressed to the United States Minister living at Lima. But as no one there was able to translate this paper, could not certify to the truth of what was contained in it, and therefore merely sent it to me as he received it.

The description given in this petition their sufferings moves me deeply, and His Majesty regards his people as his chi dren, I think that your heart will be equally affected at hearing their very pitiable condition. Though I have not myself seen the things here stated by these men, there are many reasons for placing confidence in their accounts. I enclose the original copy their petition for your examination, and or receiving your reply I shall be ready co-operate in any feasible plan which you Highness may deem proper, that is likely to bring about any amelioration of their have the honor to be, your Imperial

A respectful petition from the Canton Company, the company from Ku and Kang (in China,) and the Tungshing Company all composed of Chinese, who are in the distant land of Peru. We, your humble servants, desire to inform you how we are deceived, despised and maltreated, and, as if to Heaven, implore you to examine into our case. To us it seems to be plain that the basis of all profitable trade, whether among Chinese or uncivilized countries, lies in placing great importance on loving the people without distinction of those who may be at home or have gone abroad. We are all born China, and left that region of courtesy and fair dealing because of an extreme poverty to go away into other lands. It was the first year of Hien-Fung's reign (1851) that the banditti and rebels (in Kwangtung,) prevented all laborers and craftsmen find. ing employment, and it was at that time that we met with persons seeking for workmen who were to embark at Macao or Kumsing-Moon, (the anchorage north of Macao.) Sir.-I have had the honor to receive

I have carefully read your note and its inclosure, which prove that whether they be near or remote, you regard others with the same consideration that you feel for vourself, and carry with you a sympathy for their condition. These laborers were born in China, but having been hired to go to other countries have there suffered great cruelty and injustice, so that they cannot but cherish a life-long grudge for their wrongs. Truly, as S. E. observes, they are greatly to be pitied. We have already made a convention with British and French Governments prescribing the rules to be observed in hiring laborers, and it is stipulated in the contracts that, when the time of their engagement is completed, and their work done, that the men suall furnished with funds to return, and thus be able to obtain some advantage for their toil. In these arrangements our wish to promote the welfare of our people plainly appears. It is very probable that the large part of the three myriads of Chinese who went into Peru, left their country before these regulations were agreed upon; though at whatever time they were engaged as laborers, there were similar scipulations in force, to which all countries ought to conform. China has not hitherto entered into treaty obligations with Peru, however; and was heretofore unaware of the condition of the Chinese there; but as your Excellency has so kindly made known these facts, shall be obliged if you will communicate with the United States Minister in Peru. and request him to inquire into the details and lend a helping hand to these people. If he can protect those who remain, that they shall not receive in future such harsh treatment, or show those who wish to get to their own country how they can do so, it will be a great gratification. I shall also make known these particulars to the three Chinese envoys, Mr. Burling. ame, Chikang and Sun, for their action. I avail myself of this occasion to wish your Excellency the enjoyment of every
